Fairfax, VA -- Miller/Wenhold Capitol Strategies, LLC is proud to announce that Vice President, M. David Skiles, was named Co-Chairman of the Dulles Regional Chamber of Commerce's Government Affairs & Advocacy Committee. David has served on the Chamber's Advocacy Committee since Miller/Wenhold joined the Dulles Regional Chamber in 2010.

"Miller/Wenhold Capitol Strategies is excited to have David serving on as Co-Chairman of the Advocacy Committee," said Paul Miller, Chairman & CEO of Miller/Wenhold Capitol Strategies. "One of the most important roles our firm can play is that of being involved in the business community. David's knowledge of local, state and federal issues makes him a wonderful fit for this position."

"I am truly honored to be named to this position," said M. David Skiles. "I enjoy all working to advance the causes of the business community and am honored to be part of the Government Affairs Committee." In addition to his position within the Dulles Regional Chamber of Commerce, David also serves on the Fairfax County Government's Airports Advisory Committee.

Miller/Wenhold Capitol Strategies is a government affairs and grassroots advocacy firm based in Fairfax, Virginia.
